33rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 14th November 2021 REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

*They shall grow not old,
as we that are left grow old.*

*Age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.*

*At the going down of the sun
and in the morning
we will remember them.*

*Laurence Binyon
For the Fallen
(September 1914)*

Today we remember in our prayers all those who have lost their lives in the service of their country in WW1 & WW2 and other conflicts. We pray especially for any associated with our own parishes who will be named shortly.

Remembrance Day is celebrated on the anniversary of the signing of the Armistice on 11th November 1918, which marked the end of the First World War.

There are three soldiers known to me from our two parishes: Patrick Joseph McVeigh of Milnthorpe, Michael Bertram Walter Hodgson of Grange and Edward Regan of Flookburgh. There may be others. May they rest in peace and rise to new life. Fr. Philip

Remembrance Services: There are the following services and act of remembrance on Sunday:

- Arnside, Grange, & Milnthorpe: At the beginning of Sunday Mass we will have an act of remembrance, with the last post, silence and reveille.
- Grange: In the afternoon, at 2.45pm, a simple service at the war memorial, starting from St Paul's church.

- Milnthorpe: A simple service at the War Memorial, starting from the Market Square at 2.45pm. There will be no church service.
- Arnside: The town memorial service is at the War Memorial near the playing field at 11.00am Sunday (subject to confirmation). There is no church service.

Please support one of these services.

This Sunday's Scripture

The son of Man, Jesus our saviour, is coming in power and glory. He will gather his chosen ones to Himself, all those who have taken refuge in Him. They will say with the psalmist: "you will show me the path of life, the fullness of joy in your presence, at your right hand happiness for ever".
