SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 21ST JULY 2024

This Sunday's Scripture

Jesus saw that the crowd was like sheep without a shepherd, so he sat down to teach them and guide them. The good shepherd protects and guides his sheep and gathers them together, so that they can find pasture to feed in peace and security. Jesus realises that today, many are wandering like lost sheep, even though they may not realise it.

KECC News:

Prayer Together: a parish that prays together stays together. Pope Francis has asked us as part of our preparation for the holy year in 2025, to make this time into time up for refreshing prayer, and especially our appreciation and use of the “Our Father”. Cardinal Nichols commends to you “we dare to say”, a five-week faith sharing resource on the familiar and powerful words of the Our Father. Would you meet with a friend or two and go through this course over coffee? I also recommend it to our prayer anchors. Details will be given at Mass.

Mill Hill Missionaries are an international fellowship of Catholic missionaries, founded in Britain, dedicated to announcing the Good News of Jesus Christ to people throughout the world. Since 1936, the Mill Hill Missionaries have been working in partnership with Missio, through the Red Box programme, in parishes throughout England and Wales. There are currently 157 young men studying to become Mill Hill Missionaries throughout the world. Last year, 14 Members were ordained Mill Hill Missionaries – from Cameroon, Democratic Republic of the Congo, India, Malaysia, Philippines, and Uganda. Mill Hill Missionaries continue to love and serve in Africa (23 parishes) and Asia (26 parishes).
