NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 11th AUGUST 2024

This Sunday's Scripture

Jesus is the living bread that comes down from heaven. God promises always to sustain us through the ups and downs of life, just as he sustained Elijah in the desert, and gave manna in the desert to the Hebrew tribes. He will be there for us even when we are at the end of our resources, and want to give up. As the psalmist says: he is happy who seeks refuge in God'.

Assumption: On her natural death, Mary, the mother of God was assumed into heaven body and soul. She anticipates the time when in the general resurrection we will be re-united with our bodies. But Mary is our mother. She can never forget us her children. She is now beside her blessed Son. There she intercedes for us and reaches down and comforts us. (Holyday of Obligation: see Masses in Mass list. We will start with a short time of honouring Mary).
