FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 7th JULY 2024

This Sunday's Scripture

Today, the readings are a call to perseverance in living the truth of God's revelation, realising that the prophets and even Jesus Himself faced rejection. We are encouraged to witness to our faith by St. Paul's statement that when he is weak, then he is strong, because he allows God's grace to work in him.

KECC News:

Prayer Anchors: Pray that our churches will give a confident witness to their Catholic Christian faith, whether popular or not.

Thursday: Feast of St. Benedict, principal patron of Europe. The monastic system was an important means of preserving and unifying the civilisation of Europe after the decay and fall of the Western Roman Empire. We pray that today, Europe will find again common unity of purpose.
